

Declaration of confidentiality and impartiality for suppliers

DECLARATION OF CONFIDENTIALITY AND IMPARTIALITY FOR SUPPLIERS TO FELLESKJØPET AGRI SA

This declaration applies to Felleskjøpet Agri SA with subsidiaries and Felleskjøpet Agri SA's associated companies, together named FKA.

In conjunction with the Supplier's receipt of or participation in the processing of strategic, commercial and confidential information concerning FKA (Information), the Supplier hereby declares that it is aware that this Information is to be treated as strictly confidential.

As a condition for receiving the Information, the Supplier is obliged to observe the following provisions:

1. The Supplier must treat the Information as strictly confidential and may not disclose the Information to any third party unless it is legally obliged to do so.
2. The Supplier may not use the Information, either directly or indirectly, for any other purpose than to carry out the Supplier's tasks for FKA.
3. On the receipt of any written demand from FKA, the Supplier must immediately return the Information, without retaining any copies of any type.
4. The Supplier may disclose the Information to its employees and representatives to the extent that this is strictly necessary. The Supplier guarantees that such employees and representatives are subject to the obligations laid down in this declaration.
5. The Supplier undertakes that there is no conflict of interest between the Supplier, its employees or representatives, and FKA. In the event of any doubt concerning impartiality, the Supplier shall be obliged to notify FKA of this and, together with FKA, find an appropriate way to terminate the cooperation and transfer this to an impartial party.

This declaration is governed by Norwegian law, with Romerike og Glåmdal District Court as the applicable legal venue.
